The Manhattan Club Democrate a the other independent wings of the party, with the exception of the piedged to Grout, are a unit for Jerome.

It has not been the custom of Mr. Hill in the past to walk in open ways when he had anything of importance on hand. He has been accus summoning folks to him. The fact that he came down to see Mr. Je cpenly to-day is believed to foreshadow within a few days a public anno ment of the candidacy of the District-Attorney.

HILL'S VISIT A SURPRISE.

Mr. Jerome had ne intimation of the honor of a visit from the fo United States Senator. In fact, when Mr. Hill arrived at the office the D waiting Mr. Hill looked out of the windows at the Tombs prison and Bringe of Sighs. He scemed to be enjoying the grim gray view when Me.
